

STEPS FOR CERTIFICATION:

Step 1: Attend an initial training required for all coaches to become a Coach in Training (CiT). The first phase of training takes place over 5 days--typically 5 Fridays or Saturdays.

Step 2: Progress through the full coaching program with regular coaching meetings in tandem with another Coach-in-Training (CiT) for the full 12-month coaching experience. Attend bi-monthly CiT video conferences to discuss what is learned and to observe model coaching sessions. You will receive feedback and complete all coaching exercises as a participant. See the website for the next cohort launch dates!

Step 3: Attend a final one-day CiT wrap-up to receive your certification as well as information on how to set up your coaching ministry.

Come experience identity and inheritance... intimacy and impact.

Cost of C4C Coach Training is $699.
(Includes all 3 Phases, materials for Phases 2 and 3 plus certification fee.
4 additional books needed for Phase I).

COLLEGE of ATHENS

BECOME A C4C COACH

As you consider the relationships that God has given you for the purpose of making disciples in Christ, do you have a plan?

WHY C4C?

Would you like to develop the skills that will equip you to restore and build up other people to live from a place of wholeness in Christ, empowered for their personal journey through all aspects of who they are? Are you interested in becoming more effective in explaining to unbelievers who God created them to be and their place in His larger story? Do you value application and experience as key components for growing in Christ? We hope you will consider Coaching 4 Christlikeness!
